

Living Free at St Paul's – Autumn 2018

Session 1 – 10th October 2018

Our Original Design and Who we are in Christ – Adam Tams

This session will introduce the course and some basic assumptions. It will speak into God's original design for Creation, and for us, as well as our identity in Christ.

Session 2 – 17th October 2018

Rebellion and Repentance - Jonathan Jee

This session will look at sinful rebellion and explain what sets us free. As part of this session, Jonathan will also give a brief overview of what he is covering on the 16th and 18th of October regarding missional discipleship.

Session 3 - 24th October 2018

Two Realms – Adam Tams

This session will focus on the 'supernatural realms' and the realities of them. It will give a 'language' for the rest of the course.

Saturday 27th October 2018

Prayer Appointments

This will likely be just in the morning, and you will be given a 20-minute slot to be prayed for once we have confirmed numbers.

We will break in half term (31st October)

Session 4 – 7th November 2018

Hearing God's Voice – Adam Tams with Alison Scott

This session will look at how we hear God speak supremely through scripture – how we can discern his voice and how to practice this daily.

Session 5 – 14th November 2018

Strongholds – Jonathan Jee

This session will look into more depth at what stops us living in our original identity and offer a framework to deal with strongholds.

We will break on the 21st November as Jonathan offers training to the whole church on Missional Discipleship.

Session 6 – 28th November 2018

Authority - Adam Tams

This session will look at God's authority and its purpose alongside authority and rebellion in general, this session will also consider what it means to demonstrate our own authority as Christians.

Session 7 – 5th December 2018

Faith, Victory and Disappointment – Adam Tams

This session will conclude the course and give space to consider what we have learned. It will also deal with the question 'what if' – to help us understand disappointment if and when it comes. It will also consider how we use the principle of Living Free in our daily lives.

Optional Session 8 - Monday 12th December

Hearing God's Voice - Stage 2 - Adam Tams and Alison Scott

This is an additional session for those who want to progress in hearing God's voice and practice listening for themselves and others.
